Viktimë e pallogaritur Mar 22 2022 Kjo është historia e viktimave të tjera të pushtimit gjerman në Francë, historia e nënës sime, e cila u nda nga familja e saj dhe u arratis, dhe torturat që mbetën me të përgjithmonë. Këto janë kujtimet, siç m'i ka treguar nëna ime. Jam përpjekur ta tregoj historinë e saj me aq përpikmëri sa ma tregoi ajo, duke i renditur ditaret e shkruara, së bashku me anekdota të ndryshme që plotësuan dhe u dhanë shije historive gjatë jetës sime, pa zbulurime, duke ndërfutur interpretimet e mia të ngjarjeve. Ky nuk është një roman ankthi, ndonëse ngjarjet e treguara këtu sigurisht që ishin ankth për ata që i përjetuan. Pa dyshim që ato më dukeshin të ankthshme ndërsa i dëgjoja dhe i lexoja. Kështu që, për të shmangur sikletin për këdo që lexon këto fjalë, kam zgjedhur të përdor pseudonime sipas rastit, ndërsa përpiquesha të mbaja të pandryshuar thelbin e historisë. Nëna ime ishte franceze dhe, herë pas here, disa fjalë dhe fraza frëngjisht shfaqen në të gjithë tekstin. Kam përfshirë përkthime kudo që është e përshtatshme. Gjithashtu, ajo jetoi dhe studioi në Itali para se të transferohej në Izrael dhe, përfundimisht, në Shtetet e Bashkuara. E thënë sërish, aty ku fjalët dhe frazat përfshihen në ato gjuhë, kam përfshirë përkthime me sa kam pasur mundësi. PUBLISHER: TEKTIME

Five Albanian Villages Feb 09 2021 This book is the result of a research project designed and carried out at the Department of Architecture, University of Florence. This research was based on the transfer of knowledge from members of the Albanian Diaspora in Italy (university students, young architects and researchers) to their home country. This unique process blazed a trail in the Albania-related studies by creating a methodology, which could be replicated not only in Albanian rural contexts, but also elsewhere. The book constitutes a structured tool for generating sustainable and socially inclusive territorial development processes in five lesser-known Albanian cultural sites. Their tangible and intangible cultural heritage was seen as a driving factor for triggering development processes aimed at improving the inhabitants' quality of life and strengthening local identity and social networks. Through concrete proposals and strategies, the book offers scenarios and solutions capable of enhancing the potential of each village and, at the same time, counteracting the effects of land abandonment that so often characterise them.

Shkodra Jan 08 2021 This book offers a wide-range perspective covering demographic, family, urban and social transformations of the Albanian city of Shkodra during the interwar period. The topics discussed in the book are also related to the so-called process of 'modernisation' and 'westernisation' of a newly created state of Albania (1912). They include demography, census data, family structure, marriage patterns as well as cityscape and spatial layout and urban life. It gives insights into Shkodra's urban transformation, how the urban pattern differed from the Ottoman model, and the question of its continuity.

Agriculture, peasantry and poverty in Turkey in the neo-liberal age Mar 30 2020 This book investigates recent policies introduced into Turkey which are designed to reduce state activities and open up the country to international investment and trade. This is done in the context of the UNs Millennium Development Goals continuing to stretch into the distant future amid the ongoing instability of the global financial system and economic pressures on the West. The focus is on agriculture and the major effects of a deliberate restructuring of an agrarian economy as seen through the lens of the peasant, the village and poverty. This unique socioeconomic review of Turkey, which is generally thought to be a contemporary success story of the neo-liberal paradigm, argues for a new understanding of the destructive effects of global capitalism. Some issues addressed are the effects on Turkey's countryside as its agricultural sector has been catapulted onto the world market, how farming has changed and what this has meant for small-scale enterprises. Also discussed is how rural communities have fared, capital relations have been transformed in the process and the impact this has had on the nation's poor. Finally, the ways in which neo-liberalism has guided government's response to the new social needs is discussed along with how Turkey's experience parallels similar developments worldwide. This serves as a window to the reality of development at a time when the philosophy for growth underpinning development is facing an increasingly profound crisis of confidence worldwide.

Scanderbeide Jun 20 2019 The first historical heroic epic authored by a woman, Scanderbeide recounts the exploits of fifteenth-century Albanian warrior-prince George Scanderbeg and his war of resistance against the Ottoman sultanate. Filled with scenes of intense and suspenseful battles contrasted with romantic episodes, Scanderbeide combines the action and fantasy characteristic of the genre with analysis of its characters' motivations. In selecting a military campaign as her material and epic poetry as her medium, Margherita Sarrocchi (1560?-1617) not only engages in the masculine subjects of political conflict and warfare but also tackles a genre that was, until that point, the sole purview of men. First published posthumously in 1623, Scanderbeide reemerges here in an adroit English prose translation that maintains the suspense of the original text and gives ample context to its rich cultural implications.
